Red Cross Nursing Report

Word has been received many times the past year of the appreciation felt by the townspeople for the use of the loan closet. The wheel chair, which the committee at first was questionable about buying, has been in use several months the past year. The bed has been used in several homes. Six bags were filled at Christmas and sent to invalid soldiers.

Several children were taken to Keene before the opening of school in September for throat operations.

Mrs. C. R. Hildreth with assistants conducted the Drive in 1927. The membership amounted to 271 members.

At the annual meeting held Dec. 12, 1927, Miss Joslyn Gray was elected chairman of the Hinsdale Branch of A. R. C.

Miss Eva M. Fortier, R.N., graduate of Biddeford, Maine, Hospital, came to us in March, 1927, and her experience as a nurse has been most valuable to our town.

Respectfully submitted,

EVA N. FAY,

Chairman of the Nursing Committee.

Smallest monthly circulation (June)	1,616
Average daily	76
Per cent of fiction	66

This year's circulation has exceeded that of any previous year by over 1,300 books. The circulation of juvenile books has decreased. Few children come to the library on Saturday afternoon, though formerly the reading room was filled at that time with children.

Summer reading clubs were conducted by the librarian, credit being given for the reading of only the best children's books. About fifteen children received prizes, one of them a resident of North Hinsdale. Shelves of these books are arranged in the library in order to continue the work throughout the year.

The work between the library and the schools has been successful. In each room up to the seventh grade, and in the two district schools a shelf of ten graded books has been sent each month. A duplicate set of encyclopedias has been placed in the Junior High room.

Book Week was observed by an entertainment given at the Parent-Teacher meeting. There were displays of new books in the library and a party for the reading clubs. Miss Hobart of the State Library Commission came to speak, but as the meeting was postponed because of flood conditions she was unable to do so. Not being able to leave the town, she spent over forty hours working in the library. Valuable books were collected and put in a safe place, and a collection of all Hinsdale and New Hampshire material was made.

The librarian attended the State Librarians' meeting at New London and also the State Library Summer School at Keene, receiving a certificate for her work.

New Polish books and a new Polish magazine have been added to the library. Among the Polish books is a history of the United States, also some American classics, such as Uncle Tom's Cabin and The Last of the Mohicans, and a number of Polish classics.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

To Wesley Douglas, Superintendent of Hinsdale Public Schools:

This year our High School opened with sixty pupils in the senior division and seventy pupils in the seventh and eighth grades. This was particularly encouraging as through the summer, when the mortality is usually rather high, we lost not a single pupil in the senior school that we had with us last June. This shows a general tendency upon the part of both pupils and parents to realize the value of the school and to take advantage of the same.

Our last year's graduates are bringing back fine reports of their success in higher institutions and this year we have four that are attending such schools.

The commercial course is living up to our expectations and gives promise of still greater results as it more fully develops. Miss Glines has made the course not only popular but extremely well worth while.

But three pupils have left us this year since school opened, two of whom were unable to keep up with their classes and one because of change of residence.

We have a class of nine graduating next June, of whom six are boys, and of this class seven have signified their desire to attend institutions of higher education.

Our activities this year have been badly curtailed since fall as we have been unable to procure a place to either play or practice basketball and we have certainly missed this greatly. Both our boys and our girls should have some opportunity for the development of physical resources and the want of this is felt in the classes, and finds its expression in lingering upon the street corners, which might be questioned as the best outlet for suppressed energy. We have tried to alleviate some of this evil through dramatics, but the groups thus handled are small and the ones most in need are those impossible to reach. Even in that we are handicapped as we have no place for rehearsal and my house is a bit small to accommodate the numbers we would like to use. Thus our need for a place for extra-curricula activities is paramount. This question is one which we must all face as all such places as would even possibly serve us are closed to us and even in dramatics the cost of the town hall is practically prohibitive. We have used the Forester's Hall and this organization has been particularly accommodating to us but the physical condition of the hall renders it unfit for all but socials.

We have just completed our school fair and we have many friends to thank for their attendance and generous contributions.

We have several advantages this year over last year and among them stand out prominently the excellent teachers whom we have and their work is showing up more and more. Mr. Mulcahy has turned out work in his department that is superior to that turned out in many larger schools, Miss Sheehan's work in English is beginning to bear fruit, Miss Barbrick especially deserves credit, for she is making a real course out of our Domestic Arts Department and her energy and natural talent have enabled her to make a great deal of headway with very little equipment. Miss MacCallum's personality has aided in overcoming considerably the natural dislike of a required subject as we have in the case of the French language.

A suggestion which would help both the school and the pupil would be upon the question of tardiness as most of the cases we have are those in which the tardy pupil lives relatively near the school building. I would appreciate it if the parents would cooperate with me in getting the pupils in the habit of being on time.

I wish to thank the School Board, the Superintendent and our friends for all favors rendered, both past and future.

Respectfully submitted,

CLEON B. JOHNSON.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board and Citizens of Hinsdale:

I beg leave to submit my third annual report.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS. During the summer vacation, in addition to the usual general repairs, the Plains School was altered so as to provide bilateral and hygienic lighting. At the Monument School a modern heating and ventilating system was installed. Following up the policy that has been adopted by the Board, I would recommend the following improvements during the coming year. (1) The installation at the Plains of a heating and ventilating system, similar to the one at the Monument. (2) Painting of the Plains building inside and out and inside painting at the Monument. (3) A ten-foot blackboard at the Monument. (4) The playgrounds at the Monument and at the Bridge St. School should be gravelled.

I feel constrained to repeat a paragraph from my last year's report. "I am still convinced that Hinsdale should have a new elementary school building. I feel quite sure that your children should enjoy as good educational advantages as the most progressive towns in our State provide for their children. 'WHAT THE BEST AND WISEST PARENT WANTS FOR HIS OWN CHILD, THAT MUST A COMMUNITY WANT FOR ALL ITS CHILDREN.'" I have no reason to change my mind on this point. You will read in Headmaster Johnson's report about the need at the High School for a more suitable athletic field, for a gymnasium for physical education and basketball games and an auditorium for social and other extra curricular activities under school auspices. These needs are all very real. So is the need for a new building for the elementary school children. With the third grade still in the high school building further enlargement of the work of the High and Junior High is curtailed.

A year ago you elected an excellent committee to prepare plans for such a building. At one time they had an option on the Marden property. They worked out a most excellent plan to meet all these needs for a long time to come, at a cost not to exceed $65,000. You felt that it was not an opportune time to undertake the project. I want to urge the matter upon you again. How long will you deny to your children the advantages to which they are entitled? Personally I was very much disappointed that you did not at any rate acquire the Marden property. It would seem to me that the School District would do well to consider the advisability of acquiring this property when it has the chance.

HEALTH. Elsewhere in this report you will find the results of the physical examination. With this examination yearly and with the daily visits of the nurse, excellent oversight is being exercised over the health of the children. Still there are a few unvaccinated children. I urge it upon all parents to comply with the provisions of the law in this regard. A child must be vaccinated effectively or submit at least three times to the treatment or be excused by the Board of Health if he is not a fit subject for the operation.

TEACHERS AND PUPILS. In Mr. Johnson's report you will find an adequate description of the situation at the High School. I want especially to add my testimonial to what he says there about the teaching staff. In the Bridge St. School, Miss Corinne Holt, who has served with unusual ability and efficiency as principal for two years, resigned to accept a more lucrative position in Waltham, Mass. Miss S. Jane Hastings of Corinth, Vt., a graduate of Keene Normal School was secured as Miss Holt's successor. Subsequent events have proved that a very wise selection was made. In grade five, Miss Hazel Lonbard who had been on our staff for several years resigned and Miss Christine Keniston of Plymouth, N. H., a graduate of Plymouth Normal School, was engaged, and thus at the beginning of the year our staff was recruited and most excellently, too. But further trouble was in store for us. Miss Mann, who had given us the best she had for many years and had made a contribution to the school and to the community, that no one can accurately measure and which too few appreciated, resigned to accept a more lucrative position in Greenfield, Mass. Personally I felt it was a distinct loss to the community but the promotion was one that Miss Mann amply deserved. I am sure I speak not only for the school officials but for the citizens at large, when I say that while we mourn her loss we are proud of her promotion and wish her eminent success in her new field. But we were most fortunate in securing Miss Helen Curley of Milford, Mass., as Miss Mann's successor and she is fitting into the rather difficult task of assuming the responsibilities in the midst of the year, with most excellent satisfaction. Personally I am very proud of the Hinsdale staff of teachers and I feel quite sure that no town of its size has a staff of teachers any more competent, any better trained, and who are giving any more of their talents and efforts in the interests of their children, than do these teachers of ours.

I would be ungrateful if I did not make mention here of the interest of our citizens in the work of our schools. This is manifest in many ways. Through the generosity of Father Duffy we are able to offer prizes for essays on the life and work of Columbus. These essays are to be read and prizes awarded as a part of our observance of Columbus Day. The same gentleman has also offered a gift of a tool chest to the student showing the greatest proficiency in Manual Training. A similar gift by another party is also gratefully acknowledged.

You will note an article in the warrant in regard to a new piano for the High School. This is an improvement that is very much needed. So is there need for one at the Bridge St. building. The pupils of this school have more than $100 already raised. The type of piano that I recommend is a school piano like the Meissner. It might be well to consider the advisability of making the appropriation large enough to equip both schools. Probably $400 would be enough for this purpose.

With continued appreciation of the support of the School Board and of the loyalty and cooperation of the pupils, teachers and patrons of our schools, I am,

Respectfully yours,

WESLEY H. DOUGLASS,

Superintendent of Schools.
